Our Value this Half Term: Love Learning

Dear Essendon Families,
Our Value - Love Learning

Last week we were learning about King Charles and how as King, he is now one of the leaders of Great Britain. In Collective Worship we learnt that we can be leaders too. We can be a leader at school, in our classrooms, on the playground and around the corridors. We can show how good a leader we are by following The Essendon Way and being a role model to others. We can be kind, respectful, helpful and caring and the best leaders do this even when no one is looking, it is called integrity. Let us all lead with integrity and be a good example to others.

Toys and Games

Do you have any toys and games you would like to donate to the school for our lunchtime playtimes and breakfast club? Dolls, prams, Knex, Duplo, Lego, stickle bricks, construction, board games, all would be welcome, thank you.

Nursing Newsletter

Please read the Herts School Nursing Newsletter that is being sent out today.

Fruit Kebabs

At After School Cooking Club we made fruit kebabs drizzled with chocolate – delicious!
